

2nd Alpine Hematology Meeting

Innsbruck 2023

The central aim of this meeting is to use the EUREGIO platform as linker between the internationally visible hematology scenes in the German and Italian-speaking regions of Europe. In an alternating fashion this meeting (which was founded in the pre-COVID era by Atto Billio/Bolzano and Dominik Wolf/Innsbruck) either takes place in Bolzano or in Innsbruck and always covers a specific topic.

In 2023 we focus on lymphoma and we are proud to bring together world-class experts from the respective regions to discuss 2 days about the latest scientific and clinical topics in the field of lymphoma. The alpine flavor of our meeting should also foster exchange and vital discussion between the experts and young hematologists, either being specialists, young board-certified physicians or young and hungry docs in training. Our networking-dinner should particularly support inter-personal exchange.

We would be extremely happy to welcome you to our 2nd Alpine Hematology Meeting on lymphoma in Innsbruck.

Warm regards,

Atto Billio and Dominik Wolf
